Expert Highlights

- Certified Valuations Analyst.
- Proven as a credible expert witness under cross-examination.
- More than 50 expert appointments.
- 25 years of experience analysing economic damages.
- Has worked on multiple cases with over a billion dollars in damages.

Chad Salsbery is a Certified Valuations Analyst with over 25 years of experience. He has been appointed as an expert on over 50 occasions.

Chad has testified in arbitration (including delivering concurrent evidence), litigation, and at deposition for disputed matters with values of up to $500 million. He has undertaken expert analysis and opined for cases in district and county courts, domestic and international arbitral proceedings, and presented damages analysis to members of the Department of Justice in mediations and other settlement negotiations.

Chad's background ranges from forensic accounting, business consulting and valuation services to litigation consulting and assistance on causation and damage issues in a wide variety of industries. He has also led multiple financial due diligence reviews to assist both buyers and sellers in assessing the value of target companies. Early in Chad's career, he worked for a large publicly traded medical supply company, Baxter International, in various financial roles, including reporting and planning, treasury, and internal audit.

Chad specialises in commercial damages and forensic accounting, bankruptcy and financial valuations, and construction, insurance and government contracting disputes. He analyses and addresses issues regarding lost profits, price erosion, business interruptions, lost earnings, reasonable royalties, unjust enrichment, increased costs, and diminution of business value.

Chad is a member of the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts and the American Bar Association. He has spoken on a variety of subjects including economic and financial issues.
