Matt Danner has over 15 years of experience in providing government contract compliance, strategy, and advisory services.

Matt identifies, quantifies, and manages risks for government contractors and federal grant recipients. He has assessed organization's government cost accounting practices, conducted business system assessments, led compliance audits, developed and advised on cost and pricing proposals, developed organizational restructuring strategies, and carried out merger and acquisition due diligence on the buy side and sell side of transactions.

Matt has assisted clients with compliance issues related to the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR), Cost Accounting Standards (CAS), Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement (DFARS), Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Uniform Guidance for Federal Awards (2 CFR 200), and Department of Energy Acquisition Regulation (DEAR) supplement. His experience focuses on government contracting clients in the engineering, procurement and construction industry.

Matt's expertise includes developing contractor requests for equitable adjustments and formal contract claims, including reviewing and submitting formal claims to the cognizant contracting agency and the Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals (ASBCA). He also supports clients in assessing and negotiating subcontractor contract claims.

Matt is a Certified Fraud Examiner and has a master's in government contracts. He is on the board of directors for the National Contracts Management Association (Denver Chapter) and is a member of the National Defense Industrial Association.
