

Expert Highlights

- Chartered Accountant and Certified Fraud Examiner.
- Proven as a credible expert witness under cross-examination in both litigation and arbitration.
- Bilingual in English and Spanish.
- Experience across multiple sectors and regions.
- Specialises in shareholder and SPA disputes, quantification of damages and contentious valuations.

Michael Laming is a Chartered Accountant with more than ten years of experience. He has been appointed as a forensic accounting and commercial damages expert on ten occasions.

Michael has acted as expert in litigation, commercial arbitration and investment treaty arbitration proceedings. He has prepared expert reports and given evidence in national courts and arbitration tribunals, in both English and Spanish.

Michael has a background in audit and forensic accounting. He has supported clients across a variety of sectors including construction, transportation infrastructure and logistics, renewables, manufacturing, finance, sports entertainment and technology, media and telecommunications (TMT).

Michael's expertise includes quantification of damages, consequential loss assessments, valuations, forensic interviews, and forensic due diligence. He is widely experienced in the analysis and interpretation of complex contractual information (principally in the context of shareholder and sale and purchase agreement [SPA] disputes) and in the performance of technical valuations.

Michael is a certified fraud examiner and a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales. He is a widely regarded financial expert and has published articles in both English and Spanish on matters of quantification of damages in international arbitration.

Contact

Email: michaellaming@hka.com

Location: Madrid, Spain

Expert Information

Qualifications

BSc Hons Management
ACA
ACFE

Professional Memberships

ICAEW

Services

Forensic Accounting & Commercial
Damages

Sectors

Financial, Industrial & Manufacturing, Power & Utilities,
Technology, Transportation
Infrastructure