Robert G Dwyer is a forensic accountant with more than 40 years of experience. He has been appointed as an expert on more than 25 occasions.

Robert has provided expert testimony on economic, accounting, finance, and damages topics in California Superior Court, Federal District Court, the United States Bankruptcy Court, and in arbitration. He has also assisted with expert witness preparation for testimony on hundreds of disputes.

Robert has over 25 years of experience consulting to companies, government agencies and outside counsel on forensic accounting, economic damages, and business valuation issues. He has advised across a variety of sectors including entertainment and sports, construction, real estate, industrial and manufacturing, power, and transport infrastructure.

Robert's expert analysis incorporates causes of business failure, claims for increased costs, lost profits, loss of business value, and other economic damages. He has assisted clients in bankruptcy matters by studying the debtor's solvency at different points in time and determining whether reasonably equivalent value was received in transactions with the debtor. He also performs funds tracing analysis and other forensic accounting studies.

Robert is a certified public accountant (California), certified in financial forensics by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), and accredited in business valuation (CPA-ABV).
